Preface

We return our thanks to all who have answered our inquiries and aided us in any way while collecting data for publication; also to our advertising patrons for their orders. We are glad to say they include most of the leading and enterprising merchants of the towns represented.

Our advertisers constitute the wide awake and enterprising merchants of these towns. We hope their advertisements will be carefully noted that they will receive a pust equivalent for their expenditure. They are the ones who appreciate the fact that the book could not be published if there were not some who advertised in it.

We are indebted to Ambrose Bros. for the map we put out this year. It was reduced by G. H. Walker from a copy furnished by them.
